NUMBER 188

The whole North is out for Garfield.

A continent: Where did Barnum lay his steel rails?

"Or yes, Garfield is awful unpopular in Ohio, isn't he?"

There are no more "glorious" dispatches from Hancock.

Mr. Tilden contributed $25,000 toward the Democratic defeat in Indiana.

A man who will sell negro with two g's can't carry Indiana in November.

Barnum's miles did not pull very well in Indiana. But didn't they kick?

The country don't propose to give Hancock any chance to vote rebel claims.

This is a business man's campaign, and they are making it lively for the Democrats.

A free ballot, a full vote, and a fair count make a complete wreck of Democratic majorities.

General Hancock to Chairman Barnum: "When are the Democrats going to vote in Indiana?"

The Democrats are not only out of humor but they are not out of pocket. There's where the shoe pinches.

The people of Buckeye and the Hoosier States have given the Democrats a "change," but still they are not happy.

The voters of Ohio and Indiana did not forget how Lee and Jackson would have voted, and they voted accordingly.

Shylock English may have hundreds of mortgages on the homes of working people, but holds no mortgages on their votes.

The Democrats brag and bluster, and met defeat. The Republicans work and keep their eyes open, and win success.

English has foreclosed on the homes of 320 poor men and women, but he is not able to sell out the entire Indiana population.

When Ohio and Indiana vetoed the Democratic party, government bonds and stocks took a rise. There is nothing that will strengthen public confidence so much as Republican victories.

The only visible result of the presence of the visiting statesmen of Janesville in Chicago to see that there was a fair count in Indiana, was the loss of considerable money by their friends at home.

Hancock to Landers: "It is true that you were running for Governor in Indiana?"

Landers to Hancock: "What do you say?"

The Democrats are beginning to feel out of place in the North. There are too many business men and working men who vote the Republican ticket to give them any chance to be on the winning side.

The net Republican gains on Congressmen in Ohio and Indiana are nine. These with the gains which will be made in Wisconsin, Iowa, and New York, will give the House of Representatives to the Republicans.

The Republicans did some clean work in the Indianapolis Congressional district on Tuesday. They cleaned out Byfield, the Democratic candidate, and politically annihilated that Greenback luminary, Rev. Dr. De La Matry.

Since the Indiana election, the Hancock flag which waved over Milwaukee street, has been taken in for repairs. The Hancock flag is like the Hancock party, and the Hancock principles and like the Hancock cause—"everything all tore up."

Mr. Landers is towering with rage over the treachery of Bill English, the Democratic candidate for Vice President. He promised to give $100,000 to the Indiana campaign fund, and at last refused to give one-tenth of that amount. Landers will remember this when November comes and then English will receive his pay with interest.

FOR SALE.

Seven miles, an assortment of old steel rails, and an endless quantity of "well-seasoned ties" for sale cheap. For further particulars enquire of W. H. Barnum, chairman of the National Democratic Committee.

P. S.—Owing to the result of the recent elections, Confederate scrip will not be taken in payment.

A Chicago divine has done domestic economy a good service. He has counted the total cost of a boy from his infancy to his majority. He reckons at the age of fifteen a good boy receiving the advantages of city life cost not less than five thousand dollars, counting compound interest on the amount invested. At the age of twenty-one he will not cost any more unless he goes to college, when he will cost nearly twice as much. A bad boy costs about ten thousand dollars by the time he is twenty-one providing he stays out of college. The minister counts that girls will cost quite as much as boys. These facts will enable you to count the cost before they go into the matrimonial state.

There is an extraordinary drawing power in some of our American tragedians. They seem to command an influence that no other class of persons possess. Among the great actors in this country there is not one who is such a consummate master of the heavy tragedy as John McCullough. He is after the school of Edwin Forrest, and wields a power on the stage that has been rarely seen in this country. During the past week he has been playing in Chicago, and though Lawrence Barrett, Denman Thompson, and Thomas W. Keene, were playing in other theatres at the same time to full houses, McCullough did the largest business ever known in the history of Chicago. Hundreds were turned away every night and seats sold at a premium. There is such a strong desire to hear him that all the reserved seats of the house have been sold a week ahead. Mr. McCullough regards his reception in Chicago as the crowning event of his brilliant career. People have gone wild over him, and shower upon him as hearty applause as was ever received by an American actor. Forrest and McCullough will go down in history as two of the mightiest tragic actors America has produced.

BUSINESS AND REPUBLICAN VICTORIES.

Politics has a great deal to do with business this year. Probably there never was a time when it had such a controlling influence over trade and the industries of the country as now. Men of large means, men who have tens of thousands invested in manufacturing and employ hundreds of hands, are not willing to take any risks in this canvass. Many thousands of them do not propose to countenance a change. They do not propose to take any step which will tend to further the claims of the Democratic party. Last week the Gazette published a telegram from Rowle, Noble & Co., an Erie manufacturing firm, to a firm in Buffalo that had iron ore for sale. Messrs. Rowle, Noble & Co., decided they did not want any more stock until they knew which party was to govern this country. If Garfield was elected, they wanted more ore, and would continue to run their mills with a full force, but if Hancock was elected, there would be such an uncertainty as to what the Democratic party would do with the finances and the tariff, that it would not justify them to make any further investments in stock.

A very shrewd business man in New York, who is well-known, enterprising, and seldom wrong in his conclusions, took a day to a certain banking house in that city, on Saturday last, and called for the gold he had on deposit. On the day previous he had sold bonds to the amount of $150,000, and received gold therefor. On Saturday he sold $175,000 worth of bonds taking gold in payment. He ordered the $325,000 in gold in bags to be placed on the day, and the money was taken to an unknown but a safe place. This man was unwilling that the Democratic party should have the control of the value of his bonds. He was unwilling that they or the gold should be left in the bank for the reason that a Democratic victory would embarrass the finances of the country, and might harm the reputation of the bank. He may be regarded foolish, but he was determined to be on the safe side, and to place his gold where it would be safe should the financial storm sweep over the land in consequence of a Democratic victory.

This is the way a great many feel about politics. They dread Democratic success because that party is opposed to the American system of protection, and it is unsound in regard to finance. Manufacturers in the East and the larger establishments in the West, could have no certainty of their continuing their business were the Democrats to control the government. There could be no certainty as to the value of government bonds and none whatever as to the value of our paper currency, were the Democrats to attempt to carry out their financial policy. The markets corroborate these statements. When the news came that the Republicans had carried Ohio and Indiana, bonds took a rise, and stocks went up. There was a confidence in the market and men were not afraid to buy. On Saturday the stock exchange in New York was the scene of greater political excitement than had been known since 1860. Men became alarmed and distrustful. On the floor of the exchange active Democrats could be seen appealing to their associates to vote for Garfield in order to prevent business distress and a financial calamity.

When business men who hold in their hands the money which goes to feed thousands of workmen, talk in this way, there is occasion for the country to become alarmed over Democratic success. The business man wants public confidence to exist, or he will not prosper. The manufacturer wants to know that he can make goods at a profit, or he cannot keep his mills running and pay his help. The workman wants factories, mills, and shops to thrive, or he can not get employment and fair wages. The farmer wants a market for his products as near home as possible, and he can not have it unless manufacturers succeed. The interest of all is the interest of all, and the success of the Democratic policy of free trade, old State banks, and soft money, will injure the farmer or soft laborer as much as it embarrasses the capitalist or manufacturer.

GLORY! HALLELUJAH!!

The Election Returns Come in Still Better for the Republicans.

The Majority in Indiana Going Towards Ten Thousand.

The Republicans Control Both Branches of the Legislature.

The Returns from Ohio Continue to Add to the Great Victory.

The Democrats Concede About all the Republicans Claim.

The Democrats Have Carried West Virginia by a Reduced Majority.

General Grant's Visit and Reception in Boston.

Five Hundred Natives of St. Lawrence Island Die of Hunger.

INDIANA.

Special to the Gazette.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 14.—The Sentinel concedes Porter's election by five thousand majority.

The morning returns show the same ratio of Republican gains. The majority will exceed seven thousand. Eight Republican Congressmen and five Democratic.

The Republicans have a majority in both branches of the Legislature, assuring Ben Harrison United States Senator vice McDonald.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 14.—Porter's majority in this county is 2,135, a gain over last year of six hundred. He does not run ahead of the ticket.

Marshall Dailey swears the Sentinel for five thousand dollars damage for publishing a bogus order that all Irishmen be hanged.

English was interviewed and does not give up Indiana in November.

OHIO.

Special to the Gazette.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 14.—The Democrats concede the Republicans seventeen thousand majority and fifteen Congressmen.

WON'T RESIGN.

Special to the Gazette.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 14.—A special says English will not resign as demanded, but will endeavor to turn the tables in November.

DISAPPOINTED.

Special to the Gazette.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—Chairman Barnum is greatly disappointed at the result in Indiana, and attributes the Democratic defeat to Republican frauds.

THE COMMITTEES.

Special to the Gazette.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—Barnum calls a meeting of the Democratic National Committee for consultation here on Saturday at 3 p. m.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—The Republican National Committee meets here tomorrow to arrange for a vigorous campaign.

WEST VIRGINIA.

Special to the Gazette.

WHEELING, Oct. 14.—The Democrats claim the State by fifteen thousand majority. The Republicans concede five thousand.

part of a game or two of croquet. To see him one would suppose he was the least concerned of any one in Mentor with the result. The General is exceedingly gratified at the gains made in his own district, and his secretary, Mr. Rose, sent the following telegram to the city editor of the Leader:

"Full returns from the five counties of General Garfield's Congressional district (Nineteenth) show that in the election of yesterday there was a net gain of 1,008 over the majority which Governor Foster received from the same county last year. This is probably much the largest gain in any Congressional district in the State."

INDIANA.

A Complete Republican Victory—Eight Congressmen, the Governor, and Both Branches of the Legislature.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 13.—With a steady increase the returns have come in all day until the total received at 6 o'clock showed an average gain per precinct of a little over ten to each. About 600 voting places had been heard from, nearly one-half the entire State. Should this ratio be continued, the Republican plurality will be above 8,000. It is said also that these returns do not embrace Marion county, which is liable to increase the ratio than not. Still conservative Republicans seem to be content to rest their claims on 6,000 or 7,000, giving a little for possible shrinkage in the poorest average. The Democrats concede 5,000 on Porter, Mr. Landers himself giving him 4,000 this afternoon. There is no longer any claim by the Democrats, although this afternoon Mr. Hendricks, while conceding the Governorship, claimed the State ticket and the Legislature. Mr. McDonald also hoped and believed that the Legislature would be saved, but it was evident that it was hope against hope as it appears now.

The results of the election in brief are: A plurality for Porter and the entire State ticket. The election of Heilman, Brown, Poelle, Pierce, Orth, Demotte, Steel, and Catkins. Judge Taylor is defeated in the Twelfth District by not more than 600 or 700, while the First District is still claimed by the Democrats. Heilman, telegraphed that he is elected.

On the Legislature, Marshall Dailey, who has had particular charge of that returns show the election of fifty-three representatives and seventeen senators, which, with nine holding over, gives both branches to the Republicans. Dailey claims the election of enough Democrats to give the Republicans a majority on joint ballot. The Democrats are disposed to concede that the tail goes with the hide.

General Manson told your correspondent this evening that he was notified at an early hour last night that the State would go against his party, and he believed they had saved nothing from the wreck.

Mr. Landers was on the street this afternoon as follows a looking object as one sees in a day's travel. There seemed to be none so poor to do him reverence, even by the members of his own party.

OHIO.

The Magnitude of the Great Republican Victory—The Democrats Overwhelmed.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 13.—Republicans are dazed with the magnitude of the victory with which they are confronted. It is so complete, and in a measure, so unexpected that they can scarcely comprehend it. It has to be taken in gradually and by sections, and the Democrats are correspondingly overwhelmed. At Democratic headquarters disappointment has sooured the leaders that they can scarcely give civil answers to callers. They are miserable, and even wish they were dead. Since the first bulletins were sent out from Republican headquarters last night there has been no back down in the matter of majorities. Governor Foster and Chairman Nash, of the State committee, predicted a majority for the State ticket of 18,000 to 20,000. Early returns established the wisdom of their predictions, and later reports confirm it. To-day's returns make the general majority at from 20,000 to 25,000. The Democrats have used every means within their power, and stopped at no methods, however vile to reduce the Republican majority. There are evidences on every hand that money was used without stint to buy votes. General S. T. Robinson who was elected to Congress in the Kenton district, states that he has proof positive that thousands of dollars were used in his district to defeat him, and estimates on which money was placed in the hands of voters.

GENERAL GRANT.

He Goes to Boston and Receives an Ovation.

BOSTON, Oct. 13.—This morning General Grant, with ex-Governors Rice and Boutwell, Colonel Fred Grant and wife, General Badeau and others of the party proceeded to the State house, where they were received by Governor Long and staff, Executive Council and heads of the departments. General Grant was welcomed by Governor Long, and introduced to those present.

Immediately after the reception General Grant and party proceeded to the Quincy Market.

The market men were drawn up in line, and as the General passed down the main avenue of the market, three cheers were given him. Carriages were again taken, and the party was driven to the Mechanics' Association rooms, the General being cheered by the crowds lining the thoroughfare. On arriving at Mechanics' Hall it was with difficulty the entrance was gained, so dense were the people massed. Here a collation was served and a reception followed.

SECRETARY SHERMAN.

The Milwaukee Republicans Preparing for a Grand Mass Meeting.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 13.—The Republicans of Milwaukee are more enthusiastic than ever to-day, as the cheering news from Ohio and Indiana has come in. One effect of the great victory will be to largely increase the Republican demonstration on Friday night, which is to be reviewed and addressed by Secretary Sherman, which it is proposed to make the largest and most imposing political display ever witnessed in Wisconsin, if not in the entire West.

METHODISTS.

Doings of the Methodist Conference at Appleton.

APPLETON, Oct. 13.—The third and fourth sessions of the Wisconsin Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church was opened at 9 o'clock this forenoon with religious services conducted by Bishop Harris. The session promises to be one of uncommon interest. The important business of the day consisted in the preferring of charges against the Rev. G. C. Haddock, by the Rev. J. R. Judd, and an appointment of a committee to investigate the charges. Also the Rev. G. C. Haddock preferred charges against the Rev. J. W. Carhart, and a committee was appointed for the case consisting of fifteen members of the Conference. The counsel for the Rev. Mr. Carhart is the Rev. C. D. Pillsbury, and for the Church is the Rev. Rev. J. M. Walker, with the Rev. G. C. Haddock and Rev. S. Lugg as assistants. The trial begins at 7:30 o'clock this evening.

STARVATION.

Five Hundred Natives of St. Lawrence Island Die of Hunger.

SA FRANCISCO, Oct. 13.—The United States revenue cutter Thomas Corwin returned from an Arctic cruise this morning, nine days from Oonalaska.

The Corwin brings news that at St. Lawrence Island out of 700 inhabitants 500 were found dead of starvation. The traders had introduced liquors among them, causing them to neglect laying up the usual supply of provisions. The officers of the Corwin express the opinion that the Jeannette wintered on the Siberian shore, and is now there west of North Cape. The Corwin could not get far enough west to verify this belief on account of the ice.

GERSTER.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 13.—Many people were unable to get into the academy to attend the Gerster concert. Gerster was called out eight times on one solo, and Mlle. Belloc, Mme. Swift and Lazzaroni were each encoiured.

Seven Hundred Lives for One.

The China Mail relates the following: A tale of peculiar horror comes from the Swatow quarter. The military Mandarin for the Kit Yuen District, Fung Tye-jen, who will be remembered as the Mandarin who gave the order for the capture of Ah Pao to lose his head, and was also ultimately concerned in the Lee Lum Kwai affair, has been distinguishing himself in thoroughly Chinese fashion.

Some time ago, while he held the position of Tax Collector, had been ordered by the people, who, exasperated probably by his eternal and extensive seizures, considered taking the law into their own hand to be the only way of getting rid of him. For this daring defiance against law and order Fung Tye-jen undertook to inflict punishment upon the residents and did so with a completeness we rarely see equaled. He first secured the services of a gunboat to protect or cover his retreat, the place where the inhabitants had done as we have stated being within reach of the gun of a man-of-war. The place was then besieged, and the soldiers killed something like 700, it is said, of the people who were supposed to have taken part in the uprising against authority and had caused the death of this petty official. The number of those destroyed by the raging army of Fung Tye-jen is variously estimated from 400 to the figure above stated.

L. R. TREAT

Begs leave to announce to the people of all nations and climes that, having bought Mr. Evan Thomas' stock of Boots & Shoes, with the good will thereunto belonging, he will continue the business at the old stand, keeping the best assorted line of Men's, Women's and Children's goods to be found in the State. New Fall goods bought for cash at bottom figures, by eastern buyer, are now constantly arriving, and will be offered at prices that will defy competition, and astonish the natives.

Believing that next to bread, there is nothing like leather, I shall deal in the genuine article, and shall keep no Shoddy Goods just because others do. Show that you are alive to your own interests by calling and investigating and then judge for yourself.

LET ALL REJOICE.

The Republicans will Meet for a "Hurrah" Monday Night.

Monday evening the Republicans will have a jollification rally, with a street parade, music by the full band, hurrahs and guns, and a general good time, to wind up with a meeting in Opera house, at which there will be some rousing speeches and other appropriate doings. Let all join in the good time.

BRIEFLETS.

—The sixth competitive drill of the Janesville Guards takes place to-night.

—To-morrow evening is the time set for the party at the Janesville Grange hall.

—The churches should hold praise meetings, instead of prayer meetings, to-night.

—The Merry Club did not have only about half of their members at their party last evening.

—William Jack, picking east of Beloit, fell from a tree while picking apples, dislocated his right shoulder, and got a bad cut over one eye.

—Owing to the impossibility of securing the Bower City Band, to-night, it has been decided to hold the Republican ratification meeting next Monday night.

—George Doty was taken with a severe hemorrhage of the lungs while in Connor's grocery store to-day, and was taken from there to his home, and was attended by Dr. Sutherland who deems his case almost hopeless.

—Some of the Beloit ladies propose to take sweet revenge on young roughs who insult them on the streets in the evening time. If they succeed they ought to visit Janesville and teach the ladies here how it can be done.

—Next Monday night at the Opera house Hon. I. C. Sloan and Hon. E. W. Keyes will speak on the political questions. Remember the time and place. Such speeches as they will give are worth hearing by everybody.

—Father McDermitt will give a lecture, Sunday evening, at 7:30 o'clock, at St. Patrick's church, entitled "Christian Charity," and will meet some of the popular objections against the Catholic church. Everybody, of whatever belief, is invited to hear him.

—Kent's syrup refinery has produced 9,000 gallons this season, and the syrup is indeed fine in flavor and clear in look. Those who think that no good can come out of sugar cane raised in this part of the country would be surprised indeed to test this syrup made by him. It's really choice.

—The Baptist church have done away with a choir, and now have simply the organ and the cornet to lead the congregation in singing hymns. Mr. Silas Kent plays the cornet, and George Gookins has been engaged to play the organ. George seems to have been born for music, and he takes to that pipe organ as though he had always been there.

—The scales at the East side market are in place, and John Pitcher, a man of integrity and experience, has been placed in charge of them, and the market is now ready for business. Anyone having wood, hay, straw, etc., to sell, can make a stand there. Next Wednesday will be the first weekly market day, at which time all having anything to sell or trade are expected to show up.

—A. H. Baxter has just received through Mr. N. N. Nell, agent for the Hall Safe & Lock Co., of Cincinnati, one of their new triple flange, double door safes, for his law office, in the Richardson's block, opposite the post office. This safe comes from one of the oldest and best companies in the United States, and is certainly a handsomely made and finished piece of workmanship. It weighs 3,000 pounds and is a beauty.

—S. Heimstreet now has his large greenhouse in most excellent condition, full of plants, and conveniently arranged. He has lately got from Chicago a lot of choice bulbs and plants about to bloom, and is paying special attention to cut flowers, and arranging floral designs for parties, weddings, funerals, etc. Mr. Heimstreet is certainly a skillful florist, and some of the designs merit high praise. He is an enthusiast in this line, and it is gratifying to know that he has arranged to let our citizens have the benefit of his skill and taste as a florist.

THE WEATHER.

REPORTED BY PRENTICE & EVENSON, DRUGGISTS.

The thermometer at 6 o'clock last night stood at 34 degrees above; at 1 o'clock A. M. to-day at 52 degrees above; at 7 o'clock A. M. at 55 degrees above, and at 1 o'clock P. M. at 68 degrees above. Clear.

NUMBER OF VOTERS.

The following is the number of voters in the city whose names appear upon the registry, as shown by wards:

First ward.....	482
Second ward.....	431
Third ward.....	424
Fourth ward.....	529
Fifth ward.....	292
Total.....	1,658

RAILROAD ENTERPRISE.

The Chicago Times has the following important railway news which will be found of interest to Janesville: "Several gentlemen connected with the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway, including Messrs. Mitchell, Merrill, Carey, and Walker, have organized the Central Illinois and Wisconsin Railway company, with a capital of $1,000. It will construct a road from Rockton, on the Racine and Southwestern division of the St. Paul road, to Kankakee, crossing the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, the Chicago and Alton, the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific, and other lines. Twenty miles of track will be laid this fall."

Leopold Spindel, 201 Shumway Street, Buffalo, N. Y., says he has used Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil in his family for years, and that it is the best thing he ever knew.

A NEW INSTITUTION.

Dr. Humphrey's Plans for Improving the Ground Lately Purchased by Him.

Dr. Humphrey has not only become a resident of Janesville but has invested in property here, and proposes to invest still more in improving it. He has purchased between ten and eleven acres on South Main street just north of Rev. G. W. Lawrence's place, and will commence improving it at once. The land is indeed beautiful, and well fitted by nature for the purposes for which it is to be used. The Doctor intends to have a broad roadway leading from Main street up to the site of his Institute, which will be a substantial two story and basement brick building with a frontage of forty feet. In this building will be his office and residence, medical bath rooms and rooms for patients. The excavation will be made within a week or so and the foundations will be laid at once, and allowed to settle until spring, when the building will be completed. On a knoll in the rear of this building will be sunk a well and a wind mill will be built, so that there will be an abundant water supply not only for the Institute, but for fountains which will be set in various parts of the grounds. A natural river bed on the grounds is to be used for the head of an artificial stream emptying itself into a trout pound. This stream will be crossed by a rustic bridge, while in various parts of the grove will be rustic seats, hammocks, bowers, and all the adornments and conveniences of a park. On one knoll, from which a commanding view of nearly the whole city, and the river, can be gained, is to be built a summer house and observatory. In the grove are to be built several one story summer cottages for the use of such patients as prefer that mode of living. Streets are to be laid out on the north and east of his grounds, and in fact the whole place transformed into one of the most cheerful, healthy, and beautiful places in the country. It will take time as well as money to make all these improvements, but the work will be commenced at once, and another season will see a marked transformation in the appearance of the grounds. It is expected that patients will be attracted thither from all parts of the country, and that it will prove one of the permanent institutions of Janesville.

Is it not extraordinary that the first thing in a boat is the "Last" and the first thing in the world to cure Dyspepsia and Bilious complaints is Spring House.

REPUBLICAN RALLIES.

Last evening Pliny Norcross and B. F. Dunwiddie spoke to a houseful at the Congregational church, Emerald Grove.

Wm. Gardiner presided, and the meeting proved in all respects a success.

O. H. Fethers spoke, last evening, in Union hall, at Edgerton. He had four or five hundred hearers, and his speech seemed to please all.

Senator Richardson spoke last night in Wilder's school house in the town of Porter. There was a goodly sized and attentive audience, presided over by Gid Newman. Some of the Democrats present asked a few questions, but did not seem to relish the answers greatly, although the Republicans did. The meeting was a wide-awake one.

Last evening the Congregational church at Shopiere was well filled to hear what the Republican speakers announced had to say about political matters. There were fully one hundred and fifty voters present, and the meeting was presided over by Hon. W. H. Stark.

Hon. James Sutherland, and E. M. Lyster addressed the meeting and were listened to with close attention, and awakened a goodly degree of enthusiasm.

The Grand Central Hotel, 667 Broadway, New York City, is one of the finest, if not the finest, hotels in New York City; centrally located, recently furnished and excellently kept; charges very moderate.

TUMBLER UNDER THE WHEELS.

This afternoon shortly before 3 o'clock David Higgins, of Fulton, was driving on a load of lumber, and going along the alleyway next to the postoffice, when just in the rear of the building a front wheel went down into a hole, and he rolled off the seat. His head struck under the wheel, inflicting an ugly looking wound near his left eye, and tearing down the cheek. There was another ugly wound on his mouth, but neither were of such a nature as will prove serious. He was taken into the mill and Dr. Sanborn called, who dressed the wounds, but found no fractures.

THE DEATH OF MISS INGENE SMITH.

The following from the Norwalk (Conn.) Gazette will be read with sad interest by many friends of the family upon whom the shadow has thus fallen:

Our community was pained on Thursday last to learn of the demise of Miss Ingegene Smith, a daughter of Mr. James M. Smith, of Janesville, Wis., but formerly of Norwalk, and where for many years he carried on the marble business. She was of a kind and amiable disposition, endeared to all acquaintances, and long resided for several years past with her sister, Mrs. Charles J. Smith, who is thus again so soon called to mourn the loss of one near and dear to her. Her mother came on a few days since to be at the bedside of her child as it had been known for some weeks past that she must soon pass away. Her funeral was attended yesterday at St. Paul's church.

Rev. Henry Arms says: "I earnestly believe that DAX'S KIDNEY PAD is the only infallible remedy in the world for that prevalent and distressing complaint 'Back Ache.'"

MILTON JUNCTION.

—Mr. Leander Williams and family, of Orleans, Mo., formerly residents here, arrived in town last week to spend the winter on a visit to relatives and friends in this locality, driving through with their team.

—Mr. and Mrs. Coats, of Friendship, N. Y., are guests of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. S. Fuller, of this place.

—Miss Fannie Owen, who has been spending some weeks with her sister, Mrs. Geo. Burton, left for her home in Randolph, last week.

—Mr. P. H. Cole, agent of the Northwestern road at this place, has been absent on the sick list for a week past, but is again at his post.

—Rev. D. L. Grover, goes to Dane county this week to make some campaign speeches through that and Sauk counties. The elder is a young man, an enthusiastic Republican, a fluent speaker, and will no doubt give a good account of himself from now till November.

—C. Hull made out a large shipment of tobacco to Cincinnati on Tuesday, it was comprised of the 1879 crops of the heaviest growers in this locality.
